Case:2402907

Your honor,

The purpose of this letter I am seeking to reopen this case in order to obtain an order dismissing the involuntary bankruptcy case that was filed against me.

Judge in my defense, back in 2006 I purchased my first home #53 Van Buren street Brooklyn NY for my mom who was diagnosed with early dementia .My property had two other apartments that would help pay my then $8000 a moth mortgage. Unfortunate after a few years of purchasing my home I realized that the income that was promised was a just a dream and my loan was a balloon loan that was way over the market value leaving me behind on my mortgage. I immediately seek help by my then accountant who informed me about short sale as my option. I was then introduced to and investors that was interested in buying the property so I agreed to meet with them at his office where I sign documents giving access to my bank to get the transaction started, at least that's what I was told then.

Fast forward, after some time I reached out to my accountant asking about the sale he then said he haven't heard back from the parties so I quickly realized that they stole my property Deed. For the past six years I've been back and forth in court trying to get my deed back, this has destroy my credit costing me financially and emotionally, all the while the parties collected $6000 per month in rent close to half million in rent over the past six tears but they never paid one mortgage or property taxes. Filing Bankruptcy putting my home that I now live in at risk I am angry and very upset sadden that persons can willfully go after another fellow human being. Your honor I plead with you the court to hold these person accountable and bring justice to this unfair case.

Respectfully

Lisa Abbott
